DRESS REGULATIONS

FOR

THE OFFICERS OF THE CANADIAN MILITIA.

MILITIA DEPARTMENT.

1907.

OTTAWA

PRINTED BY S. E. DAWSON, PRINTER TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

1907

HIS Excellency the Governor General has been graciously pleased to approve the following revised "Dress Regulations for the Officers of the Militia," and to command that they be strictly observed on all occasions.

Officers commanding will be held responsible that no deviations from the authorized patterns in the uniform of Officers are permitted in their respective commands.

It is to be clearly understood that no Commanding Officer has any authority to order Officers to provide themselves with any articles or any pattern of articles of Dress or Equipment other than those authorised by Regulation. Commanding Officers will be held personally responsible for the payment of any expense which may be entailed on Officers by their having to replace, or to restore to the authorised pattern, articles which may be found by Inspecting Officers to be not in conformity therewith.

Articles of Dress, Equipment, &c., previously authorised, and now in the possession of Officers, may be continued in use until worn out, but are not to be replaced. This provision does not apply to articles whose use by these Regulations is discontinued, e.g. sabretache, gold lace stripes for trousers, &c.

By order of the Militia Council,

E. F. JARVIS,

Secretary to Council.

Militia Department,

1st January, 1907.

DRESS REGULATIONS

FOR THE OFFICERS OF THE CANADIAN FORCES,

1907.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Aiguillette.—The aiguillette is the distinguishing mark of Officers serving on the Staff of the Militia, see paras. 122 and 127, and is worn on all occasions with the tunic and frock coat, and when ordered, outside the great coat in winter uniform, on occasions when the staff parade “in blue.” It is worn by staff officers only when performing staff duties.

For description of aiguillette, and method of wearing it, see paragraph 123.

2. Badges of Rank.—The rank of officers is shown by badges as under :

Major General—Crossed sword and baton with star above.

Brigadier General—Crossed sword and baton.

Colonel—Crown and two stars below.

Lieutenant Colonel—Crown and one star below.

Major—Crown.

Captain—Three stars.

Lieutenant—Two stars.

Badges of rank, except when otherwise ordered, will be worn on all shoulder cords, and shoulder straps. They will be in silver embroidery on shoulder cords, and gold-laced shoulder straps, and gilt or gilding metal on plain cloth shoulder straps, frock coat excepted. In Rifle Regiments they will be in bronze. The crossed sword is two inches full and the baton one-eighth shorter. The crowns when laid on shoulder cords or shoulder straps are one inch broad and one inch in height ; the stars are one inch between opposite points.

General Officers badges are worn in pairs, point of sword to the front and edge of blade outwards or towards the arm.

Regimental Officers having brevet or honorary rank wear the badges of their Militia or honorary rank. Departmental Officers having honorary rank, the badges of that rank ; and Departmental Officers not having honorary rank, the badges of the combatant grade with which they rank.

3. Badges Special.—A detailed description of all badges is given in Appendix I. No badges of a special character are allowed to be worn, except those authorized by these Regulations.

Collar badges will be fixed with the centre of the badge two inches from the opening of the collar of the tunic or frock coat. They will be of the same size on all garments.

4. Boots.—

Mounted Officers—(1) When on mounted duties.—Except where otherwise specified, butcher boots will be worn. The height will depend upon the length of the leg. The boot should reach to about 4 inches from the top of the knee. The leg of the boot should be jacked sufficiently to prevent it sinking. A spur rest is fixed 2 inches above the top edge of the heel to keep the spur horizontal. (2.) When dismounted.—Wellington boots with boxes for spurs.

Dismounted Officers—Wellington boots in full dress, mess dress and undress.

For boots worn with service dress, see paragraph 37.

Winter knee boots, leather or black cloth of Regimental pattern, may be worn in winter dress by all officers, except when parading with men in marching order wearing puttees. Spurs are to be worn with them only when on mounted duties.

5. Buttons.—Unless otherwise specified buttons on the front of tunics, &c., will be at equal distances.

All buttons except for mess dress and those worn on gorget patches, will be die struck, not mounted.

6. Cocked Hats.—Cocked hats will be of black silk. Dimensions for medium size :—The left side $6\frac{1}{4}$ inches high, the right side $5\frac{3}{4}$ inches ; each corner $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches long.

On the right side a black silk cockade with loop fastened by a button; at each corner, a bullion tassel, consisting (except where otherwise stated) of nine gold bullions and eleven crimson bullions under them, $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches long, exclusive of the head; midway between the loop and tassel, front and back, a band of $1\frac{3}{4}$ inch black braid of oak-leaf pattern.

7. Collars.—The collars of tunics, frock coats and jackets, will, unless otherwise stated, be cut square at the top in front and fastened with two hooks and eyes; a black silk tab sewn on inside. The height is not to exceed two inches.

Collars, white linen, are worn with the frock coat, and patrol jacket. With Khaki frocks they are optional, but all officers of a unit must be dressed alike. The collar is not to show more than $\frac{1}{8}$ inch above the uniform. In mess dress black neck ties are worn.

8. Depth of skirts.—The skirts of tunics for officers 5 feet 9 inches in height will be :—

For Staff, Cavalry and Rifle Regiments—9 inches.

For all others—10 inches.

The skirts of frock coats will reach to the knees.

9. Forage Caps.—(Universal pattern).

Blue cloth.—Officers of Rifle Regiments, rifle green cloth—with three cloth welts, $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches total depth, diameter across the top $9\frac{1}{4}$ inches, for a cap fitting $21\frac{3}{4}$ inches in circumference, the top to be $\frac{1}{4}$ inch larger or smaller in diameter for every $\frac{1}{4}$ inch the cap may vary in size above or below the before-mentioned standard, e.g., a cap $22\frac{1}{4}$ in. in circumference, diameter across the top $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches; cap 21 inches in circumference, diameter $8\frac{3}{4}$ inches. The sides to be made in four pieces, and to be $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep between the welts; a cloth band $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide placed between the lower welts.

The cap set up on a band of stiff leather, or other material, $1\frac{3}{4}$ inches deep, but not stiffened up in front.

Chin strap for all officers to be made of black patent leather $\frac{3}{8}$ inch wide buttoned on to two $\frac{1}{2}$ inch buttons placed immediately behind the corners of the peak.

The peak to droop at an angle of 45 degrees, and to be two inches deep in the middle when worn with embroidery, and $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches when plain.

White covers may be worn in hot weather.

Peaks will be embroidered as follows :—

General Officers—Embroidered all round with maple leaf embroidery.

Field Officers on the staff of the Militia—Maple leaf embroidery on front edge only.

Field Officers on the cadre of a unit or department (except Rifles)—Plain gold embroidery $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide.

Field Officers of Rifle Regiments—Black maple leaf embroidered on front edge only.

All other Officers—Plain peak.

Distinctions as follows :—

General Officer and Officers on the staff of the Militia—Scarlet band.

Cavalry—Bands and welts of the colour of the facings.

13th Dragoons—Scarlet cap with tartan band.

Artillery—Bands and welts of scarlet cloth.

Engineers—Band of blue cloth, scarlet welt round the crown, and top of band only.

Infantry—Black band of maple leaf, scarlet welt on crown only.—Royal Regiments, scarlet bands and welts.

Rifles—Cap of green cloth, band of black mohair braid; welts of black braid.

Glengarry—Highland and Scottish Regiments—Blue, of pattern similar to that worn by the men. Plain in the Royal Highlanders; diced in the 48th and 91st. Bottom of cap bound with black silk. Black silk rosettes, except in the Royal Highlanders. Scottish Rifles, rifle dark green cloth with tuft of same colour.

For badges, see Appendix I.

Army Service Corps—Band of blue cloth, white welts.

Ordnance Stores Corps—Band of scarlet cloth, scarlet welts.

Army Pay Corps—Band of blue cloth, yellow welts.

Veterinary Department—Band and welts of maroon cloth.

Army Medical Corps—Band of black velvet, no welts.

10. Gloves—Full dress—White doeskin or buckskin, also worn with frock coat. Rifle regiments black gloves. Service dress and Patrol jacket—Brown dogskin or buckskin. In winter, black or brown lined gloves, with or without fur trimming round the wrist, may be worn instead of gauntlets. All officers of a unit must wear the same pattern.

11. Great Coats—(Universal pattern) Cloth, grey or drab mixture, same general colour as worn by N.C.O. and men of Unit milled and waterproofed, double breasted, to reach within a foot of the ground; stand and fall collar 5 inches deep (2 inch stand and 3 inch fall) fastening with two hooks and eyes; cloth tab and button; a $2\frac{1}{4}$ inch inverted expanding pleat down the centre of the back, from the collar to the waist terminating under the back strap; loose turn back cuffs of single material, 6 inches deep; two slits at side; 10 inches long, jetted in with button catch for pocket mouth; two large patch pockets inside of same cloth; one button and hole to each pocket mouth; the left pocket mouth to answer for a sword slit; a pocket in the breast placed vertically between the second and third button; two rows of buttons down the front, four in each row, about $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches apart, the rows 8 inches apart at the top and four inches at the bottom; these measurements are not to be exceeded; two tabs and buttons to slit in back seam; a 2-inch cloth back strap fastened with three holes and buttons; skirt to fasten with two tabs and button inside, and to run squarely all round; a button hole worked in the corner of each flap in front to enable skirt to be fastened to button on back strap.

"Raglan" shaped sleeves, with a cut taken out on the shoulder; coat lined on shoulder and sleeve only.

For mounted and R. C. Artillery officers, the coat is cut below the waist with spring to form 16 inch lap or 8 inches on from the centre line. The slit at the back should be of suitable length for riding. Shoulder straps of melton cloth the same colour as the garment, edged all round except at shoulder seam, according to the branch of the Service; attached to the coat by an underpiece passed through a loop on the lower part of the shoulder, and fastened at the top by a small button, which passes through both underpiece and shoulder strap; the top of the strap is rounded.

Edging of shoulder straps :—

Staff—Two broad stripes of red cloth with half inch serge light.

Cavalry—Edging $\frac{1}{4}$ inch yellow cloth.

Artillery—Edging $\frac{1}{4}$ inch dark blue cloth; in the centre a loop of scarlet braid from the shoulder seam round the upper end of the buttonhole, the size of the loop $\frac{1}{4}$ inch apart.

Engineers—As for Artillery with colours reversed.

Infantry—Edging $\frac{1}{4}$ inch scarlet cloth.

Army Service Corps—Edging $\frac{1}{4}$ inch white cloth.

Army Medical Corps—Edging of $\frac{1}{4}$ inch red cloth, with loop as for Artillery, but of white braid.

Ordnance Stores Corps—Edging $\frac{1}{4}$ inch white cloth; loop of scarlet braid.

Army Pay Corps—Edging $\frac{1}{4}$ inch white cloth; loop of yellow braid.

Veterinary Department—Edging $\frac{1}{4}$ inch white cloth; loop of maroon braid.

All Engineer Officers wear the pattern for mounted officers.

12. Cape—Of the same material as the great coat, with turn down collar 3 inches in depth, fastened with 2 hooks and eyes, unlined, 5 buttons down the front. For wear as a separate and alternate garment, or over the great coat in winter if required.

Cape to be of sufficient length to afford protection to the knees when mounted.

13. Great Coats. (Winter wear.) (Optional.)

Milled cloth, similar to coat described in para. 11, but with body, skirt and sleeves lined with real or artificial fur, optional; the collar on the outside covered with fur corresponding to material of coat—unplucked Otter, Beaver or Musquash, according to Regimental pattern, the Fur forms an edging one inch wide on the inside of the collar. The fur collar may be detachable, and worn on this coat or that described in para. 11.

14. Helmet.—Cork covered with white cloth in six seams, bound with buff leather at the bottom; above the peak and going round the helmet a buff leather band one inch wide, stitched at top and bottom. The head piece let in with zigzag ventilator; back peak to centre of crown 12 inches; front peak to centre of crown $10\frac{1}{2}$ in., side to centre of crown 9 inches; side hooks, curb chain, the links $\frac{3}{8}$ inch wide; the chain lined with white leather. At the top of helmet a collet, riveted on to a collar $\frac{3}{8}$ inch wide, to receive spike and base. A hook at the side to which the chain is attached when not required to be worn under the chin. Rifle regiments will have a chin chain on morocco leather of the same colour as the regimental facings, lined with black velvet. A leather chin strap $\frac{3}{8}$ inch broad is worn in all Orders of dress except Review Order.

Ornaments as follows, —

Cavalry, Dimensions—Height of spike from base, $3\frac{3}{8}$ inches.

Total height of spike and base, $4\frac{1}{8}$ inches.

Diameter of spike at point of contact with leaf base, 1 inch.

Diameter of base, $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches full.

The base has eight principal points, with an interval of about 1 and $\frac{1}{4}$ quarter inches between each point.

Artillery, Army Service Corps, Army Medical Corps and Veterinary Department.—A ball in a leaf cup, is substituted for the spike. The height of the ball and cup is $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

Engineers, Infantry, and Ordnance Stores Corps, except officers serving on the staff.—Spike of bright metal mounted on a bright dome base.

Dimensions.—Height of spike from place of insertion in dome is $2\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

Total height of spike and dome $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

Diameter of spike at point of contact with dome 1 inch.

Diameter of dome $1\frac{1}{2}$ inch full.

Circumference of dome at point of contact with helmet $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

15. Puggarees.—If worn to be white, (unless otherwise authorized); it is not to be worn with the helmet plate.

If a badge is worn it is to be similar in design to the field cap badge authorised, and must be so fitted as not to perforate either the puggaree or helmet plate.

16. Hat.—Colonial pattern, when authorized—khaki colored felt, with brim turned up at one side.—Regimental badge on turned up brim.

17. Metal for Ornaments, Badges, Devices, Furniture, &c.—The yellow metal for Officers Badges, Ornaments, Devices and furniture generally, can be either of gilding metal or of gilding metal water gilt. Gilding metal is cheaper, and is recommended as always presenting the same appearance, as water gilt wears in cleaning.

18. Mourning Band.—Crape $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, worn above the left elbow.

19. Saddlery.—Universal and Colonial patterns. Officers of each unit must turn out alike.

Note.—The terms "gilt" or "silver" imply metal, unless embroidery is stated.

20. Sashes.—Sashes are worn by all Officers, for whom they are regulation (except Officers of Highland Regiments) round the waist, the tassels hanging from the left side. By Officers of Highland Regiments sashes are worn diagonally over the left shoulder, under the left shoulder strap, and over the swordbelt; the ends are crossed through a runner at the waist. Sashes will be of such length that the ends of the tassels shall reach 4 in. below the bottom of the skirt of the tunic. Waist sashes should be $2\frac{3}{4}$ inches wide without pleats.
21. Shoulder Cords or Shoulder Straps.—Shoulder cords or shoulder straps, except where otherwise provided, are worn on tunics, doublets, jackets, frock coats, and great coats.
A description is included in that of the garments on which they are worn.
22. Spurs, steel.—With butcher boots, Jack spurs, with straps, buckles and chains. With Wellington boots, box spurs. With leggings or putties Jack spurs, with straps, buckles and chains.
23. Straps.—Whenever spurs are worn with trousers, straps are to be worn also.
24. Sword Belts.—As described for the respective services in which they are worn. For description of which see appendix V and VI.

Sword belts other than the Sam Browne, will be worn as follows :—Under the tunic by General Officers, Officers on the staff, not in the cadres of units, Colonels on the staff, Officers of Cavalry, Mounted Officers of Artillery, Officers of Infantry, (except Highland Regiments) and Rifle Regiments, and over the tunic or doublet by all other officers. Over the frock coat and under patrol jackets.

The web belt described in appendix will be worn by Officers of all branches of the service who wear the sword belt under the tunic, or patrol jacket, and with the frock coat under the girdle or waist sash. Slings will be made with studs and holes, so that they may be removed from the belt if required.

25. Trousers and Pantaloon.—For Mounted Officers, trousers or overalls should be cut straight, and from $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 inches longer than ordinary trousers. They should be strapped firmly down to the boot and fit closely above the spurs.

Pantaloon should be cut loose in the thigh and tight at the knee. Ample length from the hips to the knee is essential so that the wearer can have the necessary freedom in mounting and dismounting. They should have buckskin strapping at the knee, and if made for hard wear, seat strapping also, the pocket of trousers and pantaloon should be cut across, a waist strap and buckle should be fitted.

26. Waterproof coat and cape.—For all ranks.

Black or blue gray waterproof coat with cape may be worn in wet weather. Cape long enough to cover the knees when mounted.

27. Whistles.—There is no sealed pattern, but all the officers of a unit should carry the same pattern. They will be attached to a lanyard of the colour of the service frock.

NOTE.—Winter Cap—Worn by General and Staff Officers will be of Black Astrachan or Persian lamb, wedge shaped with Badge in front as for Forage cap, see appendix I.

Winter Gloves—Gauntlet shape. Black Astrachan or Persian lamb.

SUPPLY OF ARMS AND ARTICLES OF EQUIPMENT FROM MILITIA DEPARTMENT.

Officers are permitted to draw from the Militia Department on repayment any Arms, Accoutrements, or Saddlery of Service Patterns which form part of their Regulation Equipment, and which they may require for their personal use.

DECORATIONS AND MEDALS.

1. METHOD OF WEARING.

28. Worn on the left breast of the garment which is the full dress of the unit or individual. In the case of Highland and Scottish regiments over the sash, and in corps wearing the pouch belt under that article. They are to be worn in a horizontal line, suspended from a single bar or buckle which is not to be seen, or stitched to the garment, and placed immediately between the first and second buttons from the bottom of the collar; in hussar regiments immediately below the top bar of lace on the left breast of the tunic.
- Worn in the order of the dates of the campaigns for which they have been conferred, the first obtained being placed farthest from the left shoulder.
- Medals awarded by the Royal Humane Society for bravery in saving life will, when authorized, be worn, in a position corresponding with war medals, on the right breast.
- When the decorations and medals cannot, on account of their number, be suspended from the bar so as to be fully seen, they are to overlap.
- Medals are to be worn so as to show the Sovereign's head.
- The first earned clasp should be worn nearest the medal.

2. MINIATURE DECORATIONS AND MEDALS.

- Worn with mess dress on the lappel, and with evening dress (plain clothes) on state, public, or official occasions.
- With miniature medals the same sized miniature of the order is worn, e.g., a Knight Grand Cross will wear a miniature the same size as a Companion of the Order.
- When a decoration is worn round the neck the miniature will not be worn.
- Officers whose names have been included in medal rolls transmitted to the War Office may wear the miniature medal in mess dress before the war medal is actually issued.

3. RIBANDS OF DECORATIONS AND MEDALS.

- Full Dress.—The width of a medal riband is $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches. The riband is not to exceed 1 inch in length unless the number of clasps require it to be longer. The first clasp to commence 1 inch from the top of the riband. The buckles attached to the ribands of the third class of the Orders of the Bath and St. Michael and St. George should show half-way between the upper and lower edge of the ribbon.
- Undress.—Ribands will be $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in length, and will be sewn on the cloth of the coat or jacket, or with white or khaki worn on a bar without intervals, in the same position as prescribed for decorations and medals. They should not overlap, and when there is not sufficient room to wear the ribands in one row they should be worn in two or more rows, the lower being arranged directly under the upper at $\frac{1}{2}$ inch distance apart.

4. STARS OF ORDERS.

- In Review order.
- In Review order (staff in blue). They will not be worn when the undress head dress is worn.
- In evening dress (plain clothes), on state, public, or official occasions.
- All Stars of Orders are to be worn in Review order; and in evening dress (plain clothes) on State occasions.
- The Star of the Senior Order or decoration only will be worn in Review order (staff in blue), and in evening dress (plain clothes) on public and official occasions; unless it be desired to compliment a member of a particular Order when the Star of that Order may also be worn.
- The Stars of Foreign Orders will be worn on the right or left breast according to the regulation laid down by the Sovereign by whom they are conferred.
- The foregoing regulations apply to the wearing, by members and honorary associates, of the badge of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England.
- In foreign countries British officers will wear their stars when foreign officers wear theirs.

5. RIBANDS AND BADGES OF ORDERS.

- On State occasions, Knights Grand Cross and Knights Grand Commanders of any British Orders, except the Order of the Garter, and the Order of the Thistle, will, when in Review order or in evening dress (plain clothes), wear the broad ribands of the Orders, over the right shoulder and under the sash or belt. The ribands of the Orders of the Garter and the Thistle are worn over the left shoulder. Knights Commanders and Commanders will, when in Review order or in evening dress (plain clothes), wear the ribands of the Orders inside the collar of the tunic or coat, the badge being suspended two inches below the lower edge of the collar.

Badges of Orders are not to be worn except as above.

Knights Commanders of two or more Orders wear round the neck the riband and badge of one Order only.

Riband of Orders will not be worn by officers attending military funerals.

On Collar days the Knights of the several Orders wear the collar and badge, as also the star. When the Collar is worn the riband (with its badge) of the same order should not be worn. The Collar is never worn after sunset. If a Knight possesses two or more Orders, which entitle him to the Collar of each he may wear one or more of the Collars at pleasure as well as the stars.

When the Collar (from which the badge is suspended) is worn, the riband with its badge should not be worn.

The following are Collar days :

Easter Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Ascension Day.

Whit Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Trinity Sunday.

January 1st.—New Year's Day.

" 6th.—Twelfth Day.

" 22nd.—The King's Ascension.

February 2nd.—Candlemas Day.

In undress the ribands of a Knight Grand Cross, Knight Grand Commander, Knight Commander, or Commander of an Order are not to be worn, the riband of the Companionship or Membership of the Order being substituted.

6. STATE, OFFICIAL, OR PUBLIC OCCASIONS.†

It will be considered a State occasion when the Sovereign, or the representative of the Sovereign, is present ; on the parade in celebration of the birthday of the Sovereign : or when specially ordered on the occasion of any parade or ceremony, or entertainments at which a member of the Royal family is present.

A function or entertainment given or arranged by any government department or government institution will be regarded as an official occasion.

When invitations are issued in the name of any municipal corporation, institution, society, or livery company, it will be regarded as a public occasion.

7. ORDER IN WHICH DECORATIONS AND MEDALS ARE TO BE WORN.

Decorations and medals and the ribands appertaining thereto will be worn in the following order :—

(a) British Decorations and Medals—

APPENDIX II.

CARE AND PRESERVATION OF UNIFORM.

Care and preservation of uniform and of gold lace.

Articles of Uniform liable to be moth-eaten should be unfolded at intervals and well beaten and brushed in the open air. Russia leather parings, powdered camphor, naphthaline, carbolised paper, or turpentine sprinkled on brown paper, or on the garments, are good for the prevention of moth, and one or another of these preventives should be placed amongst articles of uniform which are to be packed away for any time.

Before being packed away, gold lace, braid, cord, or buttons on garments should be covered with tissue paper, and then placed in tin-lined air-tight cases. Care must be taken to use paper that is thoroughly dry. For the prevention of moth, the garments should be well aired and brushed before being packed.

Gold trimmings and gold lace that have become slightly tarnished can be cleaned with a mixture of cream of tartar and dry bread rubbed up very fine, applied in a dry state, and brushed lightly with a cleaned soft brush.

Removing stains from scarlet tunics.

In many cases stains may be removed by the part affected being rubbed with dry pipeclay and then well brushed with a cleaned brush. Should this fail to remove them the following mixture may be tried :—

$\frac{1}{2}$ ounce of salts of sorrel to $\frac{1}{2}$ a pint of boiling water.

$\frac{1}{2}$ ounce of cream tartar to $\frac{1}{2}$ a pint of cold water.

Each solution should be kept in a separate flat vessel.

These quantities will be sufficient to clean 2 or 3 garments.

The garment which requires cleaning should be first well beaten and brushed, and a perfectly clean hard brush should be used in applying the solutions.

The solutions should be applied alternately commencing with the salts of sorrel, until the garment has been washed all over, and all the stains removed.

If the weather permit, the clean garments should be hung up in the sun to dry ; if not, they should be hung up in a dry place, but not near fires or stoves.

APPENDIX III.

BUTTONS AND LACE.

Buttons—Buttons are of the following sizes :—

Large		...	35 to 40 lines (Hussars 32 lines).
Medium			30 „ 34 „
Small			24 „ 29 „

52 inches by $\frac{3}{4}$ inch	..	..	..	..	With side loop.
Girths. (Mark I.)—					Web. $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide.
Large	..	..	..	..	49 inches.
Small	..	..	..	..	44 inches.
Pannels, pair. (Mark I.)	..	..	..	..	Stuffed with flock.
Saddles. (Mark I.)—					Flaps, girth straps, seat and tree, with pannels.
Large.
Medium.
Small.
Strap, throat. (Mark I.)	..	..	..	..	With crown loop and link.

Patterns of the above-mentioned articles (one size, in the case of the bridles with reins, girths, and saddles) have been sealed to govern future manufacture.

Breastplate.

This consists of bottom, with heart, without a boss, and two shoulder straps for attaching it to saddle.

Bridle.

This consists of a light head, with browband, noseband, and throat-lash, and is fitted with double brass buckles for adjustment and for attaching the "Bit, portsmouth, reversible."

It has also a small iron chain with two rings for jowl-piece.

Two reins form part of the bridle, one $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch, and the other, $\frac{7}{8}$ -inch, wide.

Bridles will be issued in two sizes, "large," and "small," and will be marked on the head "L" or "S."

The large size has the head 4 inches, and the browband 1 inch, longer than the small size.

Small size will be issued for small, and large for the medium and large size saddles.

Girth.

This is $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches in width, and is made of khaki worsted web.

It will be issued in two sizes, 44 inches for small, and 49 inches for medium and large saddles, and will be marked "S" or "L" on the chapes.

If it is considered necessary to shorten the girth, a tuck may be sewn in the web.

Saddle.

This is an English pattern saddle, which has been largely issued under the designation of "Colonial" for particular work. The tree is similar to that used for a hunting saddle, but has the side bars extend behind the cantle.

Length of seat, 18 inches, measured from extreme edge of front to cantle.

Length of bars, $21\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

The saddles will be issued in three sizes, viz :—

Small		$13\frac{1}{2}$ inches	across the points of front arch.
Medium		14	" " " "
Large		$14\frac{1}{2}$	" " " "

They will be marked "S," "M," or "L," on the skirt of seat.

The small size saddle is suitable for animals 15 hands and under.

The medium for horses in general.

The large for heavy horses.

The following proportion of sizes will generally be found suitable, viz:—

For cobs—

Small size 100 per cent.

For horses—

Medium size 75 per cent.

Large size 25 per cent.

The "medium" is a general fitting size, and can be worn on horses which would otherwise be fitted with a "small" or "large" size, if available.

Pannels.

These are detachable to allow the stuffing to be adjusted when necessary, which can be done through the slits in the back.

They are basil lined, and stuffed with flock.

Strap, throat.

This consists of a piece of leather folded $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches in width and rounded at the throat; it is fitted with a stout strap, a $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch brass buckle, an oval iron link, and a crown loop.

The crown loop is a small strap with stud for attaching the throat strap to the bridle to keep it in position.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

All saddles in possession not marked are "S" size and should be so marked regimentally. Those in store will be marked by the Ordnance Stores Department.

The basil lining of pannels must be kept soft by occasional soaping.

The saddle blanket should be folded flat in four or six folds and worn under the saddle.

The centre cloak strap should be worn through the front and rear dee on the pommel of saddle, care being taken to attach it so that the large loop on the strap works at all times in front of the front dee.

The shoecase strap should have the loop removed to allow the shoecase to be buckled close up to the saddle dee, and the loose end (point) about $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches cut off.

The strap, throat, must be worn with the bridle for linking or tying up the horse, the head rope should be attach to it

The set will consist of the following :

APPENDIX V.

SWORDS AND SCABBARDS.

(1) FIELD MARSHALS AND GENERAL OFFICERS (Approved 27th July 1906.)

Sword.—The mounting is metal gilt and consist of crosspiece, strap, two studs and screws, and sword-knot bushes (all ornamental). The grips are of ivory, fastened on the tang with the above-mentioned stud and screws.

The blade may be plain, or ornamentally embossed.

The blade recovers straightness after being subjected to a weight of 10 lbs. vertically and 1 inch depression.

Scabbard.—The scabbard is of steel, and is fitted with an iron sputcheon with brass mouthpiece, braced on and fixed in scabbard with the screws. Two bands with lose rings are fixed on with two screws 3 inches and 12 inches respectively from the top of the mouthpiece.

The lining consists of two strips of wood held in position by the sputcheon.

Length of Sword	2 feet 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches.
“ Scabbard	2 “ 7 “
“ Blade from shoulder to point	2 “ 6 “
“ Sword and Scabbard	3 “ 0 “
Balance from hilt	0 “ 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ “
Weight of Sword	about 1 lb. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ ozs.
Weight of Scabbard complete	1 lb. 1 oz.

(2) OFFICERS OF CAVALRY OF THE LINE (Approved, 11th September, 1896.)

Sword.—The blade is slightly curved, and tapers gradually from shoulder to point. It is fullered on both sides to a thickness of not less than .05 inch, commencing at $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches from the shoulder to 11 inches from the point.

The mounting consist of guard, grip, strap, ferrule and nut.

The guard, grip and ferrule are held in position by a nut screwed on the tang; the strap is held in position by the ferrule, and by the tang being riveted over the top of the strap.

The guard is of steel, and is pierced by an ornamental device. The grip is of wood, covered with fish skin, and bound with silver wire. It must be from 5 inches to $5\frac{3}{4}$ inches long, variation being allowed according to size of hand.

The blade may be plain, or ornamentally embossed. In the latter case, while it is not necessary that a uniform pattern of ornamentation should be followed, the design should not include any badge or device beyond the Royal Cypher and Crown, and the usual manufacturer's name or trade mark.

Swords of this pattern should stand the following tests :—

Blade, in set and stiffened stage.—Struck back and edge, and on both flats, on an oak block by hand.

With a weight of 30 lbs. in the vertical testing machine, the blade should recover straightness after not less than 1 inch depression ; in the same machine it should be shortened 4 inches.

Hilt assembled.—Struck a moderate blow on an oak block, back and edge, to test the soundness of hilt.

Sword complete.—With a weight of 28 lbs. in the vertical testing machine, the sword should recover straightness after not less than 1 inch depression.

Scabbard.—The scabbard is of steel, and is fitted with a German silver mouthpiece with sputcheon brazed on, fixed to the scabbard by two screws. Two bands with loose rings are brazed on the scabbard, $2\frac{5}{8}$ inches and $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches respectively from the top of the mouthpiece.

The lining is of leather, blocked flesh side out, turned, butted, and herring-bone stitched with fine waxed thread on the right side of lining, and held in position by the sputcheon.

(3) OFFICERS OF ARTILLERY. (Approved, 25th August, 1902.)

Sword.—The blade is slightly curved, tapers gradually, is 34 inches long from shoulder to point, and is fullered on both sides, commencing $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches from hilt, to about 9 inches from point, to a thickness of not less than .04 inch.

The mounting consists of guard, grip, ferrule, strap, nut and washer.

The guard, grip, and ferrule are held in position by a nut screwed on the tang underneath the strap ; the strap is held by a washer, the end of the tang being riveted over the washer.

The guard is of stamped mild steel, of the bar pattern.

The grip is of wood covered with fish skin, and bound with silver wire ; the length of grip must be from 5 inches to $5\frac{3}{4}$ inches long, variation being allowed to suit the size of the hand.

The blade may be plain, or ornamentally embossed. In the latter case, while it is not necessary that a uniform pattern of ornamentation should be followed, the design should not include any badge or device beyond the Royal Cypher and Crown, and the usual manufacturer's name or trade mark.

Swords of this pattern should stand the following tests :—

Blade.—In set and stiffened stage.—Struck back and edge, and on both flats, on an oak block by hand.

Hilt assembled.—Struck a moderate blow on an oak block, back and edge, to test the soundness of hilt.

Sword complete.—With a weight of 24 lbs. in the vertical testing machine, it should recover straightness after not less than 1 inch depression.

Scabbard.—The scabbard is of steel ; it is fitted with a German silver mouthpiece with the sputcheon brazed on, fixed to the scabbard with two screws ; two bands with loose rings are brazed to the scabbard, $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches and $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches respectively from the top of the mouthpiece.

In the same machine the blade should be shortened 5 inches by bending from right to left and then from left to right.

Hilt assembled.—Struck a moderate blow by hand on an oak block, back and edge, to test soundness of hilding

Sword complete.—With a weight of 16 pounds in the vertical testing machine it should recover straightness after not less 1 inch depression.

Scabbard.—The scabbard is of steel. It is fitted with a German silver mouthpiece, with spucheon brazed on and fixed to the scabbard with two screws. Two bands with loose rings are brazed on the scabbard $2\frac{1}{8}$ inches and 11 inches respectively, from the top of the mouthpiece. It is also fitted with round knobbed tip, brazed in the end.

The lining is of leather, blocked with flesh side in, turned, butted, and herring bone stitched with fine waxed thread on the right side of the lining, and held in position by the spucheon.

DESCRIPTION OF SCABBARD FOR USE WITH “SAM BROWNE” BELTS.

Sealed 19th June, 1902.

The scabbard is built up with two strips of wood, grooved to receive blade of sword; they are butted and glued together.

The strips of wood are covered with brown leather, sewn down one side. A raised rib is formed below the locket by a piece of packing between wood and leather.

The body is made entirely of brown leather, including the clasps. The supporter is attached to the rib of the scabbard to hold it at a proper height in the frog, and has a tab attached with buttons on the front of belt frog or the frog on shoe pocket and so prevents either upward or downward movement of the scabbard.

Length over all		2 feet 10 inches.
“ of clasps		$7\frac{1}{2}$ inches.
Weight of scabbard complete		$9\frac{1}{2}$ ounces.

The pattern scabbard is to be regarded as typical only, as shape and dimensions may require to be varied according to the sword to be carried.

APPENDIX VI.

BELTS AND SWORD KNOT (UNIVERSAL PATTERN).

(1) THE "SAM BROWNE" BELTS.

Sealed 24th April, 1900.

(Worn by officers of all branches of the service.)

The belts, complete, consist of a waist-belt, two shoulder-belts, a sword-frog, an ammunition-pouch, and a pistol case; the whole made of brown bridle leather.

The waist-belt is $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, and of a length to suit the wearer. It is fitted with a double-tongued brass buckle, and has four brass dees for the shoulder-belts (two at the back, and one on each side), a running loop for the free end of the belt, two brass rings for attachment of the frog, and a hook for hooking it up. The waist-belt is lined with faced basil.

The shoulder-belts are plain straps (crossed at the back through a loop). They are $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide. The patterns are about 35 inches long over all, without chapes. The length however may be varied to suit the wearer. They are fitted with studs for attachment to the dees at the back of the waist-belt. A chape, with stud and a buckle, is provided for each, for attachment to the dees at the sides of the belt.

The strap over the left shoulder need not be worn, except when it is required to support the revolver.

The frog is fitted with two straps, which are to be passed through the dees on the lower part of the belt. The frog has a small brass dee on the top, to go over the hook on the belt when "hooking up." A stud is fitted on the front of the frog, upon which the tab of the scabbard supporter is fastened. (See description of leather scabbard).

A small strap for steadying the sword hilt is attached to the rear dee for the frog, holes being made in the strap to pass over a stud on the belt above the front dee.

The ammunition-pouch and pistol-case are fitted with loops on the back for attachment to the waist-belt; also with stud and tab fastenings. The loop on the pistol-case is furnished with a small brass hook, which should pass through a hole to be made for the purpose in the belt to suit the wearer in order to secure the case and keep it in position.

The pattern pistol-case is to be regarded as typical only, as its dimensions must suit the particular pattern of pistol carried.

The "furniture" should be of the best yellow brass.

(2) WEB SWORD BELT.

This consists of a waist-belt and a shoulder suspender of worsted web, strengthened at various parts with black morocco leather. It is furnished with loops, chapes, and dees. The loops and chapes are of morocco leather, and the furniture of gilding metal.

The suspender is fitted with hooks so that it can be removed by officers wearing the web belt under the sash, outside the frock coat.

(3) WEB BELT AND BRIDLE LEATHER STRAPS FOR CARRYING GREAT-COAT.

The belt is made from $2\frac{1}{2}$ -inch worsted web, and is strengthened at the eyelet holes by a light piece of leather. The coat straps are made from bridle leather, and the furniture of gilding metal.

(4) SWORD KNOT (UNIVERSAL PATTERN) UNDRRESS.

The sword-knot to be used with the "Sam Browne" belt is the universal pattern of brown leather. It is a plain strap made of pigskin, best of bridle leather, or calf, the ends being secured into an "acorn" having plaited leather covering. It is furnished with a sliding keeper.

Length of strap in the double, 15 inches; width of strap, $\frac{5}{8}$ inch; length of acorn, $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches.
